CTR'S VIRTUAL PILGRIM MARY

October is dedicated to the powerful intercession of Our Lady through the Holy Rosary and our Archdiocese is under her patronage. Let us set aside time to spend with Our Blessed Mother in a special way this month. She is particularly close to us during these times as we navigate the challenges of the pandemic, social injustice, and our own hearts.

As well as recitation of the rosary, you may also pay homage to Our Lady by signing up to receive her pilgrim image into your home virtually. To do so, simply fill out the request form online at rebrand.ly/ctrpilgrimage and our coordinator of the Pilgrim Mary Statue, Paola Sepulveda, will email you a picture of our own CTR Virgin Mary and a set of prayers to recite over a three day period. You are encouraged to print the image and place it in a special place of prayer in your home.

One parishioner who received the image said it was "a very special three days... she brought so much calm to our lives and peace to our family. [She] gives us enough strength to overcome any challenge with God's grace."

Let us open our hearts wide to Mary who comes to share our life with us and to give us the great treasure she holds in her heart, her Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

WELCOME TO OUR NEW WEEKLY MASS GROUPS

Those attending Mass on Saturday and Sunday this weekend are part of our new cohort of Mass groups. Changes to the schedule this Fall have attracted over 700 parishioners back to Mass on a weekly basis. We promise to continue to make your physical and spiritual health our priority at Christ the Redeemer.

The popularity of some Mass times has meant that not everyone received their first choice time, though we were able to assign every person and family according to one of their three choices. The popularity of the 10:00 am and 12:00 pm Masses was not a surprise, but as we were only able to give 200 spots to over 350 interested in these times, we used a randomizing computer program to ensure that those spots were assigned without bias.

This week, October 3rd and 4th, the Blue Groups in the church and the Orange Groups will be in the gym. As mentioned to all groups, the Orange and Blue Mass groups will alternate in the gym and church each week. If you forget which location your group is on any given week, simply follow the orange and blue coloured signs on site and our team of volunteers will help you find your way!

Thank you in a special way to all volunteers who are generously assisting with the new schedule. It would not be possible to offer so many Mass times without your help!

PARISH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

If your children do not attend a Catholic school, they belong in our parish religious education program (PREP)! Children are grouped by age to learn about faith and prepare for the sacraments in weekly sessions on Wednesday afternoons at 4:00 pm. This year's program is set to begin on October 14. Please contact Vanessa Lacson at prep@ctrwestvan.ca for more details or register at rebrand.ly/ctrprep.

PROJECT ADVANCE

If you haven't yet given to Project Advance, please consider contributing to our parish campaign. The main focus of this year's collection is evangelization.
